EMPLOYMENT

Fullstack Web Developer

Seattle, WA

Freelancer & Contractor

Jun 2015 to Current

Currently partnering with one other developer to create a small to medium-sized insurance company's website. The stack includes Ruby on Rails and PostgreSQL. We have also created a small external API to serve up product data and integrated Refinery CMS across the site. We will soon be using the Bootstrap grid to handle mobile breakpoints, and adding some jQuery and CSS3 animations to enhance interaction design.
